

Charles C. Burleigh

Thoughts on the Death Penalty Charles C. Burleigh

This 1845 publication, written by a prominent reformer of the day, argues against capital punishment from several perspectives, including historical, philosophical and biblical arguments. It is broken into 3 chapters: Expediency, Justice, and Sacred Scriptures (although it has Scripture references peppered throughout). Burleigh frequently references and argues against George B. Cheever, a prominent death penalty advocate of the time

Read by Librivox volunteers. Total running time: 6:22

This recording is in the public domain and may be reproduced, distributed, or modified without permission. For more information or to volunteer, visit librivox.org. Cover picture Pd phot of author who had vowed not to cut his hair or beard till the slaves were freed. Copyright expired in U.S., Canada, EU. and all countries with author's life +70 yrs laws. Cover design by Annise. This design is in the public domain.

Thoughts on the Death Penalty Charles C. Burleigh